PREFACE.

THIS, the Southern India (Madras and Mysore) Volume of the Lists of British Enactments in force in Native States, contains all the information I have been able to collect concerning the British Enactments in force in the States in political relation with the Madras Government, and in the State of Mysore.

2. The term "British Enactments," as used in this volume, covers not merely the enactments made by Parliament or the Legislative Council of the Governor General (including subsidiary Rules and Notifications issued by executive authorities thereunder) in exercise of the general extra-territorial jurisdiction possessed by the British Legislature over certain classes of persons (chiefly British subjects) in all Native States in India, but also the enactments made by the Governor General in Council, in exercise of the special jurisdiction acquired by him over all persons within the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore and the Bangalore Branch of the Madras Railway.

3. In order to mark the distinction between these two classes of enactments, all British enactments extending to the Native States dealt with in this volume have, besides being placed in different groups according to their local extent, been arranged under different heads, according as they belong to one or other of the classes above referred to. Enactments which expressly purport to be solely made by, or under the authority of, the British Legislature, Imperial or British-Indian, or appear, on the face of them, to have such a limited personal application that they might have been so made, have been arranged under one head and styled "British-Indian Enactments;" whilst enactments which expressly purport to be made, whether in whole or part, under the special jurisdiction possessed by the Governor General in Council in the places above specified, or appear, on the face of them, to have such an extended personal application that they must have been made, in part at least, under that special jurisdiction, are placed in separate categories entitled "British-Bangalore Enactments" and "British-Bangalore-Railway Enactments" respectively. Broadly speaking, the enactments styled "British-Indian Enactments" may be described as personal laws applicable only to certain classes of persons (chiefly British subjects), while the "British-Bangalore Enactments" and the "British-Bangalore-Railway Enactments" may be looked upon as territorial laws applicable to all persons within the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore and the Bangalore Branch of the Madras Railway respectively.

4. The subordinate classification under each of these heads is identical, the enactments being arranged, as far as possible, in separate lists as they are of the nature of principal enactments,—that is, enactments made in direct and immediate exercise of one or other of the two kinds of jurisdiction explained above, and subsidiary enactments, that is, enactments made in exercise of powers conferred on executive authorities in this behalf by principal enactments as above described. In the case of the British-Bangalore Enactments, the principal enactments are further subdivided into two groups, as they are (a) Enactments of the British-Indian Legislatures locally extended, or (b) Special Local Laws. The latter are, as the title indicates, new laws specially made by the Governor General in Council for the station of Bangalore. The former are, on the contrary, British-Indian laws simply adopted as laws for the station. When a British-Indian Enactment is so adopted for a place in a Native State in which the Governor General in Council has acquired special jurisdiction, it is said to be "extended" there; but this is, strictly speaking, an incorrect expression, as the local extent of the British-Indian Enactment is in no way enlarged. In every such case a new enactment is really made for the place on the same lines as the corresponding British-Indian one.

5. In addition to the enactments above described, there are the enactments which the various Native States to which this volume relates have made for their own territories. All such enactments are beyond the proper scope of this work, but some information concerning the more important of them—notably those in force in Mysore—will be found in the appendices to the various chapters.

6. In order to make this volume a complete handbook to all the British Enactments in force in the Native States with which it purports to deal the British enactments extending generally to all Native States in India have been included (see Part I), as well as the enactments extending locally to these particular Native States.

7. These Lists are intended to be supplementary to Aitchison's Treaties. Accordingly references have been inserted at the commencement of each chapter to the portions of that work which relate to the Native State or place in a Native State with which the chapter deals.

8. In compiling this volume—

(a) all Notifications and Rules of a temporary nature and Notifications conferring powers on officials and others by name have, as a rule, been omitted; and

(b) all principal enactments, save the provisions of Acts of the Indian Legislature, which are to be found in the Indian Statute-book, have, as a rule, been set out in extenso.

9. Lastly, it should be clearly understood that this volume is not authoritative, and that the Government of India is in no way responsible for its contents. It has been compiled by me, with the assistance of Mr. G. R. Ridge of the Legislative Department office (to whom my thanks are due), from the official Gazettes, supplemented by information obtained, through the Foreign Department, from the Government of Madras and the Resident in Mysore. I have made it as complete and accurate as was possible with the materials at my disposal, and in the limited time which my official duties have permitted me to devote to the work, but I do not venture to suppose that it requires neither addition nor amendment, or that it is entirely free from errors. At the same time it is hoped that the volume will be found to be a sufficiently correct and exhaustive statement of British-made law in force in the Native States under the Madras Government and in the State of Mysore, to make it of some practical use to Political Officers and others desirous of obtaining information on the subject.

J. M. MACPHERSON.

APPENDIX A.

NOTIFICATIONS AND RULES UNDER THE INDIAN CHRISTIAN MARRIAGE AND THE FOREIGN JURISDICTION AND EXTRADITION ACTS.

Notification and Rules under sections 84 and 62 of the Indian Christian Marriage Act, XV of 1872.

No. 2220, the 16th October, 1873.—So far as regards Native States in alliance with Her Majesty, except Native States situate within the local limits of the Presidencies of Fort St. George and Bombay,* the Governor General in Council, in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 84 and 62 of the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872 (Act XV of 1872), hereby fixes the following scale of fees to be charged under the aforesaid Act, and makes the following rules in regard to the disposal of such fees, the supply of register-books and the preparation and submission of returns of marriages solemnized under the aforesaid Act, and the form of the register-book of marriages certified under Part VI of the same Act :—

II.—Marriage Registrars are authorized to remit any portion, not exceeding three-fourths, of the fees in cases where they may consider the parties unable to pay such fees in full.

III.—The register-book prescribed in section 62 shall be kept in the form given in the fourth schedule of the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872.

IV.—The headings of the register-books prescribed in section 62 should be in the language of the district in which the register is kept, with an English translation, but so much of it as has to be filled in by the hand of the person performing the ceremony must be in his own vernacular language.

*The Notification also does not apply to the State of Mysore (see p. 41). It is not therefore, strictly speaking, a general one, but as it applies to the greater number of the Native States in India, it seems convenient to treat it as if it were general.

Notification and Rules under sections 84 and 62 of the Indian Christian Marriage Act, XV of 1872—concluded.

No.—Applications for supply of register-books and of forms of certificate should be forwarded for the sanction of the Local Government, the Agent to the Governor General, or other Chief Civil or Political authority having, in immediate subordination to the Government of India, the control of the relations with the Native State in which the marriage is solemnized.

Rules under the Foreign Jurisdiction and Extradition Act, XXI of 1879.

No. 31J., the 12th March, 1875.—In exercise of the powers conferred on him by sections 13 and 15 of Act XI of 1872,* and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf,† the Governor General in Council is pleased to make the following rules:—

1. The Political Agent shall not issue a warrant, under section 11 of the Act, in any case which is provided for by Treaty, if the Native State expressly desire to abide by the procedure of the Treaty, nor in any case in which application for surrender is made under section 14 to the Governor General in Council or any Local Government.

2. The Political Agent shall not issue a warrant, under section 11, except on a request preferred to him in writing by, or by the authority of, the person for the time being administering the executive Government of the Native State at which he is the British representative, and on the understanding that the provisions of Act XI of 1872‡ and of these rules are to apply to the case.

3. If the accused be a British subject, the Political Agent shall, before issuing such a warrant, consider whether he ought not to certify the case as one for trial in British India, and he shall, instead of issuing a warrant, so certify the case, if he is satisfied that the interests of justice and the convenience of witnesses can be better served by the trial being held in British India than in the Native State.

4. The Political Agent shall in all cases, before issuing a warrant under section 11, satisfy himself, by preliminary enquiry, that there is a primâ facie case against the accused, and that the charge is not prompted by political motives.

5. [See amended Rule on page 13.]

6. If the accused person be a British subject, but the Courts of the State do not by custom or recognition as aforesaid try Native British subjects, the Political Agent shall dispose of the case himself.

7. If the punishment which may be awarded by the Indian Penal Code for any offence for which the accused person has been surrendered as above be more than the Courts of the State by custom or recognition as aforesaid inflict, the Political Agent may try the case himself if he thinks it advisable to do so.

8. Notwithstanding anything in the three preceding rules, the Political Agent shall try any such case himself, or make it over for trial to the ordinary Courts of the State, if he be generally or specially instructed by the Governor General in Council so to do.

9. In cases made over for trial by the Courts of a Native State under Rules 5 and 7, the Political Agent shall satisfy himself that the accused receives a fair trial, and that the punishment inflicted in the case of his conviction is not excessive or barbarous; and, if he is not so satisfied, he shall demand the restoration of the prisoner to his custody, pending the orders of Government.

* This Act has been repealed; but the Notification is kept in force by section 2 of Act XXI of 1879. Section 18 of the latter Act corresponds to section 15 of Act XI of 1872.

† In spite of this reference to "other powers," these Rules have been classified as British-Indian Enactments because they appear, in so far as they extend to Native territory, to be limited in their application to the persons to whom Act XXI of 1879 applies.

‡ Repealed. See now Act XXI of 1879.

10. A return of all persons made over for trial by the Courts of a Native State under Rules 5 and 7 shall be submitted half-yearly by the Political Agent to the Government of India or the Government of Madras or Bombay, as the case may be, in the following form :—

Half-yearly Return, under Rule 9 of the Rules under the Extradition Act (XI of 1872),† of persons made over by the Political Agent at for trial by the Courts of Native States under Rules 5 and 7, for the period ending*

Number.	Name of person.	Nationality.	Offence with which charged.	Where arrested.	Date of surrender.	Native State to which surrendered for trial.	Reasons for surrender.	Nature of sentence passed, with date of sentence.	Remarks.

11. Persons arrested in British territory on a warrant issued by a Political Agent under section 11, and persons arrested on a warrant issued under section 14, shall be treated, as far as possible, in the same way as persons under trial for a similar offence would be treated under the Code of Criminal Procedure [Act X of 1872‡], or under the procedure in force in the Presidency-towns if the arrests take place within any Presidency-town.

12. The persons sentenced to imprisonment by the Political Agent shall, if British subjects, be conveyed to the most convenient jail in British territory, there to be dealt with as though the conviction had taken place in a Court of British India: provided always that no appeal shall thereby be given other than is allowed by any rule for regulating appeals from the decisions of the Political Agent.

13. Nothing in rules 5 to 10, inclusive, which refer to cases under section 13 of the said Act, shall be deemed to apply to Political Agents immediately under the authority of the Governor in Council of the Presidency of Fort Saint George or the Governor in Council of the Presidency of Bombay.

[See Gazette of India, 13th March, 1875, Part I, page 128.]

No. 149J., the 8th October, 1875.—The Governor General in Council is pleased to order that the notification of this Department [i.e., the Foreign Department], No. 31J., dated 12th March, 1875, publishing certain Rules under Act XI of 1872 (the Foreign Jurisdiction and Extradition Act, 1872),† shall not apply to Native territory under the direct administration of the British Government, in which the Code of Criminal Procedure (Act X of 1872‡) is in force.

And the penal clauses of the Madras Forest Act, 1882, as respects forest-offences committed in the leased Forests.

Note as to surrender to these States of persons committing offences therein.

The Political Agents of these three States have been authorised to permit the surrender to these States of persons other than European-British subjects accused of non-bailable offences committed within them, but not such as are accused of heinous offences. These offences are such as are triable in British India by a Court of Session only or which the Political Agent considers would be properly committed to such a Court by a Magistrate having jurisdiction to try them himself See orders by the Government of Madras, No. 367 Judicial, dated 17th June, 1875, and No. 1786 Judicial, dated 29th August, 1881

Note as to Jurisdiction of the British Government in the sanitarium of Ramandrug in Sandur.

In the Hill sanitarium or plateau of Ramandrug in the Sandur Zamindari, the British Government possesses, under an agreement with the Raja, exclusive criminal jurisdiction over Europeans and their servants and all other Resident persons, not Native subjects of the Raja. See Aitchison's Treaties, Vol. V, p 403. The effect of this cession of jurisdiction was described as follows by the High Court at Madras in the case of the Queen v. Vencanna in 3 Mad. H. C. R, p. 354 "Under the concession, then, we are of opinion that persons, not Native subjects of the Raja, committing offences on the plateau, for which they are amenable to our Criminal law, are protected from the Raja's power over offenders, and they alone can be apprehended, committed and tried by the Magistrates or Justices of the Peace and the Courts within Her Majesty's Indian territories, or by a Judicial officer empowered to exercise jurisdiction on the plateau. Offences committed by the subjects of another Prince or State not made amenable to our Criminal law must be dealt with, if at all, by the Government, under the Tahalamah, as an international question"

The jurisdiction so conceded is exercised by the Criminal Courts of the Bellary District—see Order by the Government of Madras, dated 24th October, 1848, in the Fort St George Gazette for 1848, Volume 2, p. 1021 : and the Order dated 17th July, 1860, in the Fort St George Gazette for 1860, p. 96.

(c) The Resident as aforesaid, in addition to his powers as a Justice of the Peace, shall exercise within the said State the powers of a Sessions Judge under section 76 of the Criminal Procedure Code [Act X of 1872†], and may, in his discretion, direct that trials before him as Sessions Judge shall be conducted without the aid either of a jury or of assessors.

(d) The High Court of Judicature at Madras shall exercise original criminal jurisdiction over European-British subjects of Her Majesty being Christians resident within the said State.

APPENDIX A.

PROCLAMATIONS ISSUED ON THE 25TH MARCH, 1881, BY THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT AND MAHÁRÁJÁ OF MYSORE, RESPECTIVELY.

1.—Proclamation issued by the Government of India.

Whereas in the year 1868 the Viceroy and Governor General of India in Council announced, by proclamation to the Chiefs and People in Mysore, that His Highness Chamrajendra Wadiar Bahádur, the adopted son of the late Mahárájá Krishnaraj Wadiar Bahádur, had been acknowledged by the Government of India as successor to Mahárájá Krishnaraj Wadiar and as Mahárájá of the Mysore territories; and declared that, when His Highness should attain the age of eighteen years, the government of the country would be entrusted to him, subject to such conditions as might be determined at the time:

Now, therefore, His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General of India in Council announces to the Chiefs and People of Mysore, by command of Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland and Empress of India, that His Highness Chamrajendra Wadiar Bahádur is hereby placed in possession of the territories of Mysore, and invested with the administration of the Mysore State.

And His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General in Council declares further to the Chiefs and People of Mysore that the administration of the aforesaid territories by the British Government has on this day ceased and determined.

2.—Proclamation issued by His Highness the Mahárájá of Mysore.

Whereas the Government of the territories of Mysore heretofore administered on our behalf by the British Government has this day been transferred to us by the Proclamation of His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General of India in Council, dated this 25th day of March, 1881; we do hereby notify and declare that we have this day assumed charge of the said government, and we call upon all our subjects within the said territories to be faithful and to bear true allegiance to us, our heirs and successors.

We do hereby further declare that all laws and rules having the force of law now in force in the said territories shall continue to be in force within the said territories.

We hereby accept as binding upon us all grants and settlements heretofore made by the British Government within the said territories in accordance with the respective terms thereof, except in so far as they may be rescinded or modified either by a competent Court of law or with the consent of the Governor General in Council.

We hereby confirm all existing Courts of Judicature within the said territories in the respective jurisdictions now vested in them, and we further confirm in their respective appointments the Judges and all other officers, civil and military, now holding office within the said territories.

For the conduct of the executive administration of the said territories under our commands and control, we have resolved to appoint a Díwán. And we, placing trust and confidence in the loyalty, ability and judgment of Cettipuniam Veeravalli Rangacharlu, C.I.E., do hereby appoint the said Cettipuniam Veeravalli Rangacharlu, C.I.E., to be our Díwán for the conduct of the executive administration of the said territories.

His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General in Council having complied with our request to lend us the services of the present Judicial Commissioner, Mr. John Douglas Sandford, Bengal Civil Service, Barrister-at-Law, and Master of Arts, to aid us in the administration of justice in our territories, we hereby confirm the said Mr. John Douglas Sandford in his appointment, under the designation of Chief Judge of Mysore.

We have further resolved that a Council shall be formed, to be styled "The Council of His Highness the Mahárájá of Mysore," which shall consist of the Díwán for the time being as ex-officio President, and of two or more Members to be specially appointed by us from time to time. It shall be the duty of the Members of the said Council to submit, for our consideration, their opinions on all questions relating to legislation and taxation, and on all other important measures connected with the good administration of our territories and the well-being of our subjects. We are accordingly pleased to appoint

Cettipuniam Veeravalli Rangacharlu, C.I.E., Díwán, ex-officio President, Trichonopoly Rayalu Arokeasawmy Thumboo Chetty, Judge, ex-officio Member, Poorna Krishna Rao, Member,
Attupakam Ratna Sabhapathy Madaliar, Member, to be Members of the said Council, to hold office as such Councillors for the term of three years or during our pleasure.

APPENDIX B.

NATIVE MYSORE ENACTMENTS.

The conditions on which the government of the State was entrusted to the Mahárájá (see p. 45, supra) were set forth in an Instrument of Rendition, dated the 1st March 1881, Article 19 of which was as follows:—

"All laws in force and rules having the force of law in the said territories when the Mahárájá Chamrajendra Wadiár Bahádur is placed in possession thereof, as shown in the Schedule hereto annexed, shall be maintained and efficiently administered, and, except with the previous consent of the Governor General in Council, the Mahárájá of Mysore shall not repeal or modify such laws, or pass any laws or rules inconsistent therewith."

The Native Enactments now in force in Mysore consist, therefore, of such of the enactments specified in the schedule to the Instrument of Rendition as have not been since repealed or superseded, together with the subsequent enactments made by the Mysore Government, and may be classified as follows:—

I.—Enactments included in the Schedule attached to the Instrument of Rendition (pages 47 to 64):—

Part I.—General Acts.
„ II.—Madras Acts.
„ III.—Bombay Acts.
„ IV.—Bengal Act.
„ V.—Rules made under the foregoing Acts.
„ VI.—Rules made otherwise than under the foregoing Acts.

II.—Enactments made prior to the rendition and not included in the Schedule attached to the Instrument of Rendition, but deemed to be still in force.

1. The Arms Act.
2. Rules and Notifications—
   (a) made under the Arms Act.
   (b) made otherwise.

III.—Enactments made by the Mysore Government since the 25th March 1881, namely—

1. Regulations passed by the Mysore Government.
2. Notifications and Rules having the force of law specially made by the Mysore Government.
3. Rules and Notifications by the Mysore Government—
   (a) made under Acts included in the Schedule attached to the Instrument of Rendition.
   (b) made under Rules in Part VI of the Schedule.
   (c) made under Regulations passed by His Highness the Mahárájá.

NOTE.—All these Enactments are, strictly speaking, beyond the scope of this work, but, seeing that this State was administered for so many years by the British Government, and that the law now in force there is still in great measure the law introduced by that Government, it has been thought desirable to give some information on the subject. Accordingly this appendix contains lists of the enactments included in the schedule to the Instrument of Rendition, as also of those classified under Sub-heads 1 and 2 of Heads II and III in the above statement, or, in other words, of all enactments, save subsidiary enactments as defined in the Preface.

These Lists, save those of the enactments included in the schedule to the Instrument of Rendition, are based, so far as enactments made prior to September 1886 are concerned, on information supplied by the Díwán.
